(In the space provided below, please explain in detail the reasons for the delay in filing a proper reply.)

Applicant's Representative makes the statement that the Notification of Missing Requirements date mailed 10/24/2008 was not received at the correspondence address of record, and that a search of applicant's representative's records, including any filing jacket or the equivalent, and the application contents, indicates that the Notification of Missing Requirements was not received.

The enclosed statement of Laura A. Caponi describes the system used for recording correspondence received from the USPTO. This statement establishes that Applicant's docketing system is sufficiently reliable, and also establishes non-receipt of the Notification of Missing Requirements.

STATEMENT OF LAURA A. CAPONI

1. I am the Docket Supervisor at Bristol-Myers Squibb Company (“Company”) and have worked in the Company’s Docketing Department since March of 2003.
2. A correspondence notification is sent from the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (“USPTO”) to Company via e-mail to our central e-mail address uspatents@bms.com from the USPTO.
2. The central e-mail address is monitored by the Docketing Department.
3. Once the correspondence notification is received, the Docketing Department connects to the USPTO Pair system to download and print the correspondence that is referenced in the USPTO notification. Once the correspondence is downloaded and printed, it is then sorted and date-stamped by the Docketing Department.
4. To the extent correspondence is received as mail via the U.S. Postal Service rather than via e-mail, mail is opened, sorted and date-stamped by the Company’s Support Services Personnel who are trained to identify, collect and forward all USPTO documents to the Docketing Department. Once the mail has been opened, stamped and sorted by Support Services, the Docketing Department is contacted and the sorted mail is reviewed again by the Docketing Department to be certain all USPTO documents have been collected for docketing.
5. The Docketing Department then verifies the proper identification of each USPTO document via the Company’s computer docket system Memotech. After proper identification, each USPTO document is entered into the Company's docket system, which serves as an electronic record for documents received by the Company from the USPTO on a daily basis. The Docketing Department personnel initial each USPTO document on the upper right hand corner. Attached hereto, as Exhibit A, is a page from the Company's docket log for U.S. Application Number 10/585261 filed on January 7, 2005 (Attorney Docket No. 10159-US-PCT). I personally searched the docket system for all dates from January 7, 2005 to May 15, 2009 and found no record of the receipt of a "Notification of Missing Requirements under 35 U.S.C. 371 in the United States Designated/Elected Office (DO/EO/US)".

6. After the mail is processed by the Docketing Department, it is distributed to the patent paralegals and secretaries.
7. Upon receipt of the original USPTO document by the paralegals and secretaries, they, pursuant to instructions, look for the date stamp and the initials in the upper right hand corner of the USPTO document. These two notations together indicate that the USPTO document has been properly processed and entered into the Company's docket system. If either the date stamp or initials are missing, the paralegals and secretaries, pursuant to instructions, assume that the USPTO document has not been properly processed and bring it to the attention of the Docketing Department immediately.
8. Once the USPTO document is entered into the docket system, USPTO documents requiring a response will appear on a bi-weekly docket report beginning two years prior to the deadline and continuing until the requisite response has been fulfilled. The bi-weekly docket reports are distributed to attorneys, agents, paralegals and secretaries for monitoring purposes. In addition, the Docketing Department maintains docket report to communicate to the attorneys, agents, paralegals and secretaries of outstanding, non-extendable deadlines.
9. Once the requisite response to a USPTO document has been sent to the USPTO, the responsible paralegal or secretary sends the Docketing Department a Docket Process form, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit B, along with a copy of the document that has been sent to the USPTO. The Docket Process form identifies the case by application number and present docket date, and also identifies the document(s) sent to the USPTO and the date the document(s) was sent. Each of these entries must match the docket system before a response due date is satisfied. In this way, the Docketing Department can ensure that the requisite response has been satisfied.

10. I hereby declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that willful false statements and the like are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any registration issued thereon.
